

Old Oakville

Welcome to Old Oakville! Oakville's vibrant downtown core is certainly the place to be. A real hub of activity and home to a large collection of retail boutiques including art galleries, restaurants, high fashion and design houses, health and wellness centres and much more. Take in a show at the theatre, visit the library or museum, enjoy the events and festivals...

Outdoor Living...

The charming lakeside community of Old Oakville offers an abundance of trails, parks and promenades. Bike or stroll along the lake, relax with a book in one of the many parks, share a meal in one of the many fine eateries. So many wonderful ways to enjoy the outdoors... right in your own neighbourhood!

Shopping and Dining...

The downtown shopping area features a number of quaint stores, boutiques and spas along with an impressive selection of eateries and fine dining choices. You will also find grocery, pharmacy, video stores along Lakeshore for your convenience. In the summer, the weekly Organic Farmer's Market held at Kerr Village is a great place to find fresh organic produce.
